Blessing of the Hands

The Blessing of the Hands ceremony is a universal healthcare tradition, believed to have been started by Florence Nightingale in the 1800s. It is a symbolic gesture to remind you that your hands should deliver compassionate care at all times.

Blessed be the work of these hands

Blessed be these hands that will touch life

That will nurture creativity

That will hold pain

That will embrace with compassion

That will take x-rays and administer medicine

That may be closed in anger or withdrawn in fear

That have varied our endless tasks as a part of caring

That will reach out and that will be received

That will comfort the dying and hold the dead

That hold the promise of the future

Bless these hands for service

Bless these hands that they may continue to be a blessing to others

And may the work of these hands bring healing to all the people they touch

AMEN

May you be blessed with a spirit of gentleness, a heart that is tender, and courage to persevere.
